May

The inaugural OR Velo Ride

Sunday 20 May.

With an increased interest in cycling across all age ranges, we have decided that a cycling event would be a brilliant addition to the OR sporting calendar.

The first edition is going to be a simple affair and a trial of the concept. We will meet from 9.30am at The Spencer pub in Putney (owned by Gareth Lloyd-Jones M 80-84), where hot coffee and warm croissants/bacon sandwiches will greet you. From there we plan to make a leisurely start at around 10.15, cycling 40km out into Surrey, where we will make a quick stop at the Dabbling Duck in the pretty village of Shere. From there we will go through Dorking and up Box Hill, and return to The Spencer for post-ride beers.

Rugbeian News

Rugbeian Society Khadija Saye Photography Award

The Rugbeian Society is establishing the Khadija Saye Photography Prize worth £250 a year to the best photograph portfolio by a Rugby pupil. A portfolio of no less than three and no more than six original and unedited photographs can be submitted for entry (by August 31, 2018), with full details of each picture, where, when and why they were taken, and technical information.

Entries can be submitted digitally to Tracey Ahmet, Executive Assistant of the Rugbeian Society via tda@rugbyschool.net or delivered hard copy to Tracey at The Old Marshal's Office next to Old Quad. Details of the first prize winner will be included in the print edition of the Floreat in early 2019.

Caroline Austin (D 03-08) who is the Owner and Manager of The Golden Lion Hotel & Restaurant is offering a complimentary glass of Wine or Prosecco if you book a table with the quote "Rugby School".

Nick Morrish (Ma + SH 00-05) is a composer, and doctoral candidate at the Royal College of Music, and has been invited to become a visiting research fellow at Harvard University in 18/19. Nick is hoping to make contact with potential donors who might be interested in helping him to fund the fellowship. Nick would be excited about working with donors to create newly commissioned work, or could provide a series of bespoke pieces, workshops, lectures, installation work or seminars in return for any support.

If you would like to know more please contact Nick via nickmorrish@hotmail.co.uk

Anouk Wear (B 11-16), current second-year HSPS undergraduate at the University of Cambridge, will be interning at the OHCHR (Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights). She will be at the Human Rights Council Branch, in Geneva, from mid-July until the end of September 2018.

She is extremely excited, but all UN internships are unpaid, and she has not been to Geneva before. Anouk would be very grateful to hear from any OR's who may be able to share advice, recommendations, or any contributions you can make towards this; and she will be extremely grateful for your support. You can email her on aw730@cam.ac.uk

Other News

The Game Fair is now recruiting for temporary staff and volunteers to work during the event 27 to 29 July at Ragley Hall. Various roles available including GameFairMakers and Ronnie Scott's Jazz Evening hosts. Volunteers will be rewarded with a polo shirt, lunch, voucher and access to The Game Fair when not on duty. Many of the roles are voluntary with the benefits above but, for people with good skills and something extra to offer, payment may be available.

Sport

OR Soccer

The Old Rugbeian Soccer side has reached the DW Trophy Final for the second successive year following a 4-2 victory over Old Columbans in the semi-final.

The final sees the Old Rugbeians take on Old Johnnians and is to be held alongside the Arthur Dunn Cup Final at Merchant Taylors' School, Sandy Lodge, Moor Park at 10.45 am on 21 April.

All support on the day would be warmly welcomed as the Old Rugbeians seek to avenge their penalty shoot-out defeat to Old Tonbridgians in last year's final.

OR Meteors

28 April 11.30am start, Meteors vs School XI on 28th April 2018, NBS.

ORGS

The 2018 ORGS season began in mid-February at Royal Worlington (see the ORGS website for a report).

28 April time TBC, Meteors vs School XXII on 28th April 2018, OBS.

20 May Meteors vs Butterflies at Rugby. 11.30am start with luncheon and tea breaks. If you are interested in playing please contact Charlie Wedgwood \(W 04-09\).

17 June 11.30am start, Hurstpierpoint College vs Meteors at Hurstpierpoint. Cricketer Cup Round 1.

If you would like more information on any of the above please contact Charlie Wedgwood \(W 04-09\).

If you wish to play in our fixtures, do not wait to be asked but contact the relevant organiser. In the Halford Hewitt draw, Rugby is to play Felsted in the first round at 10.40 on Thursday 5th April at RCP, Deal.

Do come and support both on Thursday and in the later rounds if, as we all hope, we are successful; results of matches can be followed on the Halford Hewitt website.

Rugbeian speakers wanted . . .

A group of LXX pupils are seeking to invite external speakers for an academic conference on the broad theme of 'Conflict and Cooperation'.

The conference will take place at Rugby School on Friday 9 November 2018, and will be open to Rugby School pupils in the D Block, as well as students from local schools. The guest speakers will be joined by pupils, who will also be presenting a short academic paper relating to the theme. Speakers are invited for the day, presenting a talk for around 20 minutes, and forming a panel in the afternoon to discuss experience or knowledge which relates to the wide-ranging theme.

If you are interested in speaking at the event, please contact Tracey Ahmet.

The Bradby Club has begun a countdown to its centenary in 2019 and are looking to add to its archive. We are asking anyone who has been involved or volunteered at the Club over the years to please get in touch and share any stories and photos. Please email Brenda Green on bg@rugbyschool.net

Dan McLean is currently running a blog about cataloguing the letters and papers of Louis Stokes, an old boy of School House who was killed on the Somme in 1916.
