Thursday 8th – Friday 10th February
CABARET - By Christopher Isherwood with music by John Kander and lyrics by Fred Ebb.

Set in 1930s Berlin, Cabaret explores the life of English cabaret performer Sally Bowles and her relationship with American writer Cliff Bradshaw, set in the seedy underworld of the notorious Kit Kat Club.

This year's main school production features a bumper-sized cast of over fifty talented Rugby School student actors, singers and dancers performing in the historic Temple Speech Room.

Tickets are free or if you would like a more immersive experience, you might choose to purchase a seat at one of the Kit Kat Tables where you can enjoy a 3 course meal during the show for only £15.00 per person.
