Sport

Anyone for OR Tennis?

After a lengthy absence we are looking to enter an OR tennis team into the prestigious old schools' tennis competition, The D'Abernon Cup, the finals of which are played at The All England Club. This is an all male competition, however we would also like to try to put together a mixed team to take on The School in the summer as well.

With both of these events in mind, we are planning a couple of fun evening knockabouts for both boys and girls so we can organise initial teams and reboot our tennis heritage (we were runners up in the first ever D'Abernon Cup in 1929 and also 1961, whilst we won it consecutively in 1946 and '47). These will probably take place indoors at a venue tbc in London.

If you would like to come along please email me at markrjcarr@gmail.com and I will send you details when we firm them up.

Rugbeian News

Lurline Property is a property investment company committed to providing quality, affordable rental accommodation within England. Our belief is that everyone has the right to live in good quality and well maintained accommodation that provides their basic needs which they can call home. The current major housing shortage presents a great opportunity for professional landlords.

We are looking to raise private finance by structuring opportunities for people to achieve good rates of return for short term loans, rates which are higher than the banks are currently offering.

Why work with us?

- We use proven, practical investment techniques and strategies to build our business.

- We work with a global network of experienced property investors who act as advisors so helping to reduce risk and ensure the right deals are found and negotiated.
- Honesty and Integrity are part of our core values.

If you are interested in being an Angel Investor or Joint Venture partner, please get in touch. We are happy to share with you our current projects and any future opportunities.

Update on Search for Rugby School Fleming Scholars

The original article asking if you were a Rugby School Fleming Scholar went in the Floreat on-line bulletin in June 2018. This helped expand the known Rugby School Fleming Scholars from 10 to 18, but there are about 40 still to be found. All the Rugby School Fleming Scholars discovered so far were at schools in Hertfordshire: Hitchin Boys Grammar School; Watford Grammar School and Stevenage Alleynes to name a few.

The good news is that the deadline for the book on the Fleming Scholars has been extended into next year, to allow more time for research following the discovery of about 40 Mill Hill School Fleming Scholars supported by Middlesex. The big reunion planned at Eton has now been scheduled for the end of 2019 instead of the beginning.

The new deadline for Fleming Scholar biographies for the book is March 31st, 2019.

The Fateful Voyage - Friday 9 November 2018 at 7.30pm

A BBC commission written by broadcaster and biographer Dr Kate Kennedy. The recital through music, song, poetry, letters and diaries, tells the story of the extraordinary friendship between the poet Rupert Brooke (Brooke 1901-06) and two Great War composers, F.S. Kelly and William Denis-Browne (James 1903-07).

The Fateful Voyage uses Rupert Brooke's words and Kelly and Brown's music to dramatise the three young men's last journey, their voyage to Gallipoli in 1915. Brooke died of septicaemia on the journey. Brooke's writings before his demise on the voyage are amongst the most well-known poems of the war.

Performed by: Narrator Kate Kennedy, Pianist Simon Over and Tenor Matt Sandy.

The recital will be in All Saints Church, Clipston, Nr Market Harborough. LE16 9RW.

School News

On Sunday 28 October Andrew Chessell, Housemaster Town House ran 'in stormy conditions and a flooded Venice' the Venice Marathon as part of the Hobbs Challenge.

It is hoped that £25,000 can be raised in order to build a gym in Christian Hobbs memory, a wonderful pupil, so tragically lost on Boxing Day last year. Such a devastating shock to Christian's family and the whole community at Rugby.
