Sam Ruddock (T 06-08) is looking for sponsors for the Senior Cerebral Palsy Squad.

The Derby County Football Club (DCFC) Senior Cerebral Palsy squad sits under the Community Trust; the Trust is responsible for the professional club's outreach and charity work in Derbyshire, which includes providing competitive football for those with a disability. Last season, the squad were runners up at the National Finals. They receive no funding from Derby County, the FA or any local area authority. Therefore, subsidies, playing kit, travel to training, games and tournaments are all costs covered by the players and coaches themselves.

Sport

ORGS

We could do with a few more to play (even if only for some of the rounds) at the ORGS autumn meeting (the major event in our year) on Fri/Sat 14/15 Sept at Rye. Those playing would surely wish to stay for our annual dinner in the Rye Clubhouse (the only dinner the Club holds) on Fri 14 where we entertain the Club Captain and Secretary.

Rugby Meteors

The Meteors played Wellington in Round 2 of the Cricketer Cup on Sunday 2 July and lost - Wellington 239-4. Rugby 103 all out.

If you would like more information on any of the above please contact Charlie Wedgwood \(W 04-09\).

You can, as always, apply to play via the ORGS website or and applications to play and more details can be obtained the Hon Secretary at timwatts178@btinternet.com, who looks forward to hearing from you.

We also need one more player for our match, which is always keenly fought, against the Veteran Ladies to be played at Piltdown (Sussex) on 27th September. Please let Gerald Cowan \(B 55-58\) know if you can play (contact details on the Fixtures List or you can apply via the website).

In memory of the late Christian Hobbs, a member of School Field who tragically passed away on Boxing Day 2017, we proudly present The Hobbs Challenge. The Hobbs Challenge is a project organised by Staff and Students to raise money for The Christian Hobbs Memorial Gym at The Heart of England Community Boxing Club.

We hope to raise £25,000 for the club by undertaking sporting, cultural or academic challenges. These challenges are listed on our JustGiving Page. It is our hope that hundreds of challenges are undertaken for the cause.
