meridian
Private Client LLP - Solicitors

Due to continued growth, Meridian is looking to recruit a trust manager to join its busy Private Client Practice. The role will involve working with a multi-disciplinary team including tax specialists and solicitors to assist in the management and compliance affairs of various trusts. This is primarily a compliance based role that will follow the normal tax compliance calendar and will involve managing a caseload under the supervision of the Partners. The ideal candidate would have strong attention to detail and technical expertise.

Meridian is also seeking a tax advisory specialist to work closely with the Partners on a broad range of tax advisory work including trust and estate planning, shareholder planning, real estate and a very significant element of international work around residence, domicile and overseas structures. The successful candidate is likely to be CTA qualified. Part-time or full-time working patterns would be considered.
