Education Guardianship

Parents of students at Rugby School (the School) who are resident outside the UK must appoint an Education Guardian for their child in the UK. This is the case for all students, irrelevant of age.

This policy provides information on education guardianship and also includes the education guardianship form which all parents who reside overseas are expected to complete.

Definitions

The following definitions apply:

Guardian: The technical meaning of guardian refers to a person who is appointed to care for a child because the parent or guardian has died, or to a person acting as a testamentary guardian or a guardian of the child's estate. We will refer to this type of guardian as a Legal Guardian. The second, informal meaning arises where there is simply a delegation of parental responsibility and we refer to this as an Education Guardian.

Parental Responsibility: This expression means the whole raft of rights and duties which a parent has in relation to their child. Married parents, Legal Guardians and those with court orders have parental responsibility. Unmarried fathers may acquire parental responsibility by agreement, by registering the birth jointly with the mother or by Court Order but they do not obtain such responsibility automatically. A number of people can have parental responsibility at the same time. Parent and Legal Guardians do not lose it when others or a local authority acquire it (except in adoption cases).

Delegating Parental Responsibility: A person who has parental responsibility may arrange for some or all of it to be met by one or more persons acting on their behalf, such as a nanny, Educational Guardian or a boarding school.

Why must an Education Guardian be appointed?

It is usual for independent schools to insist that overseas parents appoint Education Guardians for their children whilst they are at school in the UK. This is to ensure that there is somebody in the UK who can take responsibility for the child or young person and provide them with care and support when they are not in the care of the School. The Education Guardian should also be given legal authority to act on behalf of the Parent in all respects.

The Education Guardian's responsibilities usually include caring for the student as would a responsible and caring parent by, for example, being in regular contact with the student and providing advice and support as necessary. The Education Guardian will need to care for the student and take responsibility for the student if he / she is unwell, suspended or otherwise released from School. Responsibilities also include being authorised to make certain decisions concerning the student on the Parents' behalf, for example decisions regarding emergency medical and dental treatment and matters of a disciplinary nature.

The Education Guardian may provide accommodation for the student, or the student may be accommodated elsewhere. Students are not permitted to remain in residence at school during school holidays or leave-out weekends, as published in the School Calendar, as there is no provision for appropriate supervision during school holidays or leave-out weekends.

Who can be an Education Guardian?

An Education Guardian may be a family member, a family friend, a guardianship agency, a host family, or other responsible adult based in the UK.

Most overseas parents use a guardianship agency to act as Education Guardian.

Guardianship agencies typically arrange accommodation as well as acting as Educational Guardian for their students. Guardianship agencies will usually arrange accommodation for their students through host families, although sometimes other accommodation options will be used. Host families will then be responsible for providing the day to day care of the student, accommodation and meals. If the guardianship agency arranges accommodation for the child or young person, the agency will be responsible for ensuring the quality and safety of the accommodation including the necessary recruitment (DBS) checks.

How is an Education Guardian appointed?

The responsibility for choosing an appropriate Education Guardian rests solely with the Parents. The Parents are responsible in each case for satisfying themselves as to the suitability of an Education Guardian.

It is expected that the Parents will appoint an Education Guardian via a reputable organisation, preferably a member organisation of the Association for the Education and Guardianship of International Students (AEGIS). AEGIS is the authoritative association for inspecting and accrediting guardianship agencies in the UK. AEGIS can be contacted via their website: www.aegisuk.net. It is important to note that the School does not recommend any specific agency and parents are required to make their own checks into the suitability of any agency. The School is not able to arrange the appointment of an Education Guardian and is not able to arrange accommodation for any students.

Education Guardianship Agreement

Parents who reside outside of the UK are expected to complete an education guardianship form (see below) which provides the School with full details of the Education Guardian and the responsibilities which the Parents have delegated to them.

Parents must inform the School of the name and contact details of any appointed Education Guardian and must also inform the School immediately if there are any changes to any details relating to the Education Guardian.

Lodgings and Monitoring

The School will have regard to The National Minimum Standards for Boarding Schools (2016) – Standard 20. Any lodgings arranged by the school to accommodate students must provide satisfactory accommodation and supervision. They will be checked before use and monitored by the school during use including annual checks.

Every school term a member of school staff will discuss the lodging arrangements with each student who has an education guardianship arrangement made by the school. This discussion will be recorded in writing and action taken on concerns or complaints.

For Arnold Foundation Students from Hong Kong

Exclusively for this small group of students, the Rugby School Development Office will take responsibility for overseeing guardianship arrangements. The responsibility for the selection of these guardians will lie with the Development Director in consultation with The Lee Hysan Foundation.

Travel arrangements for this group of students will be made by the Rugby School Development Office in consultation with the guardians and with the students.

These guardians, and other members of their households, will be required to undergo the checks required by the National Minimum Standards for Boarding, including the relevant DBS checks. Rugby School Human Resources Department will undertake to ensure that these guardians are recorded on the Single Central Register and will ensure that an appropriate officer of the school visits the accommodation provided by the guardians before the student joins the school in order to satisfy themselves that the arrangement is suitable and meets relevant legislation.

Guardians appointed by Rugby School for this group of students are expected to fulfil the requirements for all guardians under the terms of this policy. In the event that an Arnold Foundation guardian cannot host a student they may not make their own arrangements for that student to stay with other families. These arrangements must be made either a) by the Development Office at Rugby School if another guardian with DBS checks can host or b) by the parents of the Hong Kong student concerned if another family will host.

Private fostering:

Private fostering is when a child or young person under 16 years of age goes to live with someone for 28 days or more by private arrangement with someone who is not a:

- Parent
- Close relative (brother, sister, aunt, uncle, grandparent or step parent)
- Guardian or a person with parental responsibility

In these circumstances the School has a legal duty to refer to the local authority. For more information please follow this link: <http://www.warwickshire.gov.uk/privatefostering>

Update and Review

This policy will be reviewed by the Assistant Head (Houses) from time to time and at least every two years.
